

1. What is the genre of this story and what does this mean?

2. Who is the author and tell one thing about her.

3. Who is the illustrator and tell one thing about her.

4. What is the essential question? Please answer the essential question after you write what the question is.

5. Pg 726. What are some features of the landscape that Rachel and her family are traveling across?

6. Pg. 726. What does Rachel mean by saying that she is quaking inside?

7. Pg 728. Compare and contrast the Indian's behavior with the perception of Indians that the adults in the wagon train seem to have. (TO DO A COMPARE AND CONTRAST WILL REQUIRE AT LEAST 2-3 SENTENCES).

8. FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE: .Hyperbole is an exaggeration to make a point or describe something. For example Rachel says, "You could have heard a pin drop." What does this tell you about how quiet it was when the brave approached the children?

Now give one more example of figurative language on page 729.

Figurative language example	What you think it means

9. Page 730. What does Rachel mean by saying, "The Plate is swollen and wild. I am relieved that we do not have to ford it?"

10. (REMEMBER FIRST PERSON USING THE WORDS I, ME, MINE.)

How does the first person point of view influence how the river crossing is described?

11. Pg. 732-733 CAUSE AND EFFECT: Remember, recognizing cause and effect can help you connect plot events and how those events fit together to shape the story. There are several reasons that William becomes stuck on the sandbar, Name two of them in the table below.

CAUSE	EFFECT
	William becomes stuck on the sandbar.
	William becomes stuck on the sandbar.

12. Pg. 734. What figurative language does Rachel use to bring the buffalo stampede to life?

13. Page 735. Use of descriptive adjectives. Name 4 adjectives used before the noun that adds such a wonderful mind movie to the readers (1 is already done for you). REMEMBER ADJECTIVES DESCRIBE A NOUN. FOR EXAMPLE HAPPY BABY. Happy is the adjective to describe the baby, which is the noun.

Adjective	Noun
whirling	dust storm

14. TRUE/FALSE statements about literary terms used in this story.

TRUE/FALSE. An exaggeration used for dramatic effect in a story is a hyperbole?

TRUE/FALSE. A comparison using like or as in the sentence is a simile?

TRUE/FALSE: A comparison that says one thing is another in the sentence is a metaphor.

15. MULTISYLLABIC WORDS.

1. HIGHLIGHT THE PREFIX IN RED
2. HIGHLIGHT THE SUFFIX IN GREEN
3. UNDER LINE VOWEL COMBINATIONS
4. Break words into syllables with a / (for example mis / hap)
5. SAY THE WORD
6. Make the word real (does it make sense?)

MISLEAD

UNKNOWN

DISCOVER

DISLIKE

UNFORTUNATE

MISHAP