

1. What is the essential questions?
2. Write two facts about the sockeye salmon.
3. Write two facts about the elephant.
4. Give one example from the reading that explains how well-developed a bat's hearing is.
5. Identify three senses used by honeybees to help them find food.
6. What facts on page 9 help you better understand what you are reading?
7. Why do you think the author discusses maps and compasses on pages 10 and 11?
8. Summarize what scientist have learned about how migrating birds navigate.
8. What do you think makes the journey of the pacific salmon especially amazing?

Use one of the following vocabulary words in your answer to questions 9-11.

VISUALS, CAPTIONS, TEXT FEATURES (such as titles, headings or special type)

9. What are the large blue arrows across each pair of pages meant to show and how do they connect to the topic of the article?
10. What species are the birds shown following the ultralight in the photograph on page 11?
How do you know.
11. How to the headings in this article help you understand what you are reading?

