

As we read this selection, we will be filling out the cause and effect table. This will help identify and explain cause-and-effect relationships as we read.

CAUSE	EFFECT
pg. 178..What effect will the trackers building a low fence around the tree have on the tree Kangaroo

1. What kind of genre is this story and what does that mean? What clues help you to understand you are reading this type of genre?
2. On the bottom of page 177, there are footnotes that reference certain key words in the text. How can this information help improve your understanding?

READ TO PAGE 178 to answer the CAUSE AND EFFECT TABLE

STOP
PAGE 179

CAUSE	EFFECT
Trackers look for a tree the kangaroo likes to eat
	The tree Kangaroo climbs higher to try to escape.

STOP
page 180

1. Using text evidence, (be sure to use quotes around the exact words the author uses in your answer). What evidence does the author use to show the tree kangaroo can “move like an acrobat” ?

STOP

page 181-182

1. What is the importance of the radio collars weight?
2. DOMAIN SPECIFIC VOCABULARY, (page 182) How can we determine the definition of anesthesia by reading the sentences before and after it?

STOP:
Page 184-185

1. What context clues can you use to determine the meaning of respiration?
2. Page 185. How does the author show you what Gabriel is feeling?
3. Why does the author use quotes from the research team and detailed description of their work?

STOP
Page 186-187

Cause	Effect
The cause of Gabriel untying the bag and immediately the burlap boils with movement...the effect of this is?

When humans interact with animals

events are likely to occur

STOP
Page 188

1. Using text evidence, what does Gabriel mean when he says, "History"?